Over the DESKTOP

As we go to press for this Summer 1983 issue of the Magazine, it is with an acute awareness that we are approaching an end of an era for the Fraternity and moving into a new plan of operation with new personnel in a new location. With the completion of our Fraternity Headquarters in Indianapolis, the big move is scheduled for mid-July, just about press time for the Autumn issue.

For the editor working at her home in Seattle, things will be just about the same but with a personal difference. We'll miss the camaraderie of frequent phone conversations with Nancy Weess, executive secretary-treasurer; Jane Meyers, associate EST; and Ruth Adair, bookkeeper; as well as the women who work without titles to make things run smoothly in CO.

In a small way we feel a part of the transition . . . keeping our membership informed on the progress of our building project, urging their support of fund-raising campaigns, and bringing to you the highlights of the very important steps in the future of our Fraternity that have been evolving in the past few years. It all began with the Grand Council of 1978-80 which made the decisions, and the Grand Convention of 1980 which ratified them. For the Council elected in 1980 there was only one way to go, "take the ball and run."

So now we'll be direct-dialing and sprint-lining to Indianapolis. From Founders' Road, we'll be talking to Executive Secretary-Treasurer Marcia Bond, and the Associate EST Susan Herring. What an interesting and exciting time to edit the Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine!

A Tribute

One of the most distinguished Thetas of our day, Nancy Hanks, Beta Rho, Duke died in January. She left a legacy to our country, an awareness that our government has a definite role to play in the arts.

As chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts from 1969-1977, she accepted the responsibility for the federal government's effort to subsidize theatre, dance, orchestras, museums and other cultural institutions. The particular focus of her administration was to attract matching funds from private sources. This she accomplished with great success through the Challenge Grant Program for this purpose. She estimated that for every federal dollar spent, three more dollars were appropriated from private industry and foundations.

Nancy Hanks' career in public service began in Washington D.C. with a receptionists job. By the next year she was on the President's Advisory Committee on Government Operation of which Nelson Rockefeller was chairman. She became an assistant to Rockefeller and later joined the Rockefeller Brothers Fund staff where she directed the landmark study, The Performing Arts: Problems and Prospects. Returning to government as chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts, her persuasive powers on behalf of the arts became almost a legend on Capital Hill. She herself considered one of her highest accomplishments to be the increased use of federal funds as stimulus for private funding. Among the many honorary degrees and special awards bestowed upon her, she accepted the last one and maybe the most prestigious a month

New Executives Appointed

One of the most important items on the agenda of the February Council meeting was the selection of two new top administrators to manage the fraternity business from the new Indianapolis headquarters.

Marcia Bond of Gamma Delta chapter at the University of Georgia was chosen to become the Executive Secretary-Treasurer. Susan Crisler Herring, Beta chapter, Indiana University is the new Associate Executive Secretary-Treasurer. With the opening of the new headquarters they will replace Nancy Dorman Weess, who has been top fraternity administrator since 1977, and Associate Jane Cannon Myers. The two retiring executives chose to remain in the Evanston-Chicago area where homes and families are established.

The new Central Office executives are both Hoosiers, presently living in Indianapolis. Marcia Bond received her A.B. in psychology. Her background in management, sales and public relations includes selling industrial and utility machinery to manufacturers, municipalities and utilities in Indiana. While working as a field representative for Reid-Holcomb, Co., Inc., she was the top salesman for the company in a five year period. She left that sales position to become manager of R-H Sales Co., a construction equipment dealership, with responsibilities in hiring/training, financial operation and developing and implementing marketing strategies. She will be leaving a managerial position with Combined Networks, Inc. a telecommunications service firm when she takes up her duties for Kappa Alpha Theta. Asked what excites her most about working in CO, Marcia answered, "Pride in knowing that I will once again be working for the advancement of Theta, and excited about the challenge of setting up a new office and working with Thetas for Theta."

Susan Herring has been involved in Theta work wherever she has lived around the country, as president of two alumnae clubs and recommendations chairman. Susan has strong Theta roots in Indiana. Her two sisters are Thetas as is her niece. Her daughter Cathy is a member of Gamma chapter at Butler and Mary Beth graduated from Ball State where she was a member of Delta Sigma. Daughter Ann, a model in New York, will enter college in the fall. Susan leaves a position as a legal secretary for Resort Condominiums International to join Theta. Her career background also includes teaching, sales, and personnel training.

She returned to Indianapolis to live a year and a half ago and said she is "thrilled with having the opportunity to be involved in Theta's growth at the new headquarters."

Web of Theta Friendship at Dickinson College

In the beginning

There was a small coeducational college in the rolling hills of Pennsylvania. Dickinson College in Carlisle, enrollment under 2,000, was already home to three NPC groups—Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, and Gamma Phi Beta. The Panhellenic at Dickinson decided that more women students should have the opportunity of belonging to a sorority, and three national sororities were invited to make presentations to colonize on that campus. One was chosen . . . Theta. That was last May, 1982.

The plan

Theta's extension team, headed by Lynn Davis, GVP Service went into action. Already in place was the most important ingredient for a successful chapter, willing local alumnae. The Harrisburg-Carlisle Alumnae had hoped for a chapter at Dickinson, and they were ready! Following acceptance of the invitation to colonize, local Thetas guided by the colony coordinator Diane Wenthe made all the local arrangements in conjunction with the student affairs office. Hospitality, food decorations and arranging for rooms for entertainment and interviewing were their responsibility.

Theta's format

First things first. The call went out for recommendations on girls presently attending Carlisle who had not yet affiliated. Sally Hughes, ADP in District VI was in charge of securing recommendations.

The selection of a resident counselor to help prepare the colony for chapter status is a big step in the overall plan. Ann Gradwohl of Texas A&M who had just completed a year as a traveling consultant was chosen. Living on campus Ann worked with the chapter until mid-year, when she left to enter graduate school. Deanne Worobetz became the resident counselor Jan. 1.

Unaffiliated upperclasswomen at Dickinson found an interesting envelope in their mail boxes the first week of school—Theta's pamphlet, "Lead the Way" which is an introduction to our fraternity, along with an invitation to come to an open house, and to sign up in the Dean's office if they wished to participate in a special rush for Theta only. One hundred Dickinson coeds attended the open house, and 94 interviews were scheduled.

A different kind of rush

In the "special rush" type of colonization, interviews of rushees are by Council members and invitations to membership are extended by the interviewing team, which at Dickinson included Carol Brehman, GVP College; Judy Alexander, Member-at-Large; and Lynn Davis, GVP and Extension Director. First stop for rushees was at the hospitality room where

ADP Sally Hughes, CDP Sally Rienhold, local alumnae, Resident Counselor Ann Gradwohl and Rush Adviser Kathleen Ritner were hostesses. A display of "Theta Things" and pins drew the attention of prospective members.

College Thetas from District VI played an important role in the colonization. Mu chapter from Allegheny was on hand with rush skits and props providing the atmosphere which only collegians can impart to a rush party.

The extension team had previously set its own quota, a number felt to be optimal for a new chapter, all of whom were beyond the freshman year. Just as in regular rush a preferred list was prepared and bids were matched by the Panhellenic adviser and president, and Theta's representative, Extension Chairman, Lynn Davis.

We follow tradition

At Dickinson there is a tradition that each sorority has a place in the commons area where members and new pledges gather. By themselves, because no other sororities were rushing, Thetas went to the steps of Alt House for singing and picture taking before proceeding to formal pledging conducted by CDP Sally Rienhold in the Theta apartment.

The Epsilon Lambda colony is a chapter now. What is the first thing they are doing? Preparing to grow of course.

to a daughter going to college

By NPC Delegate Norma Anderson Jorgensen, for Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity

Dearest Jennifer,

Soon you will leave us for a great adventure—new surroundings, new friends, new challenges. We will miss you, and hope you'll miss us a little bit. Please make your old Dad a promise.

You know, because I've mentioned it often enough, that membership in a fraternity added a special dimension to my college days. You've heard about Phi Gamma Delta wins on the athletic field—did I ever tell you about the time I hit a home run which beat the Sigma Nus in intramural softball and the ball broke a window in a car driving by the field? Of course I did, probably many times. And how I probably wouldn't have passed freshman chemistry except for a Brother who was a senior chem major? I guess I did.

The promise I want you to make to me is that you will go through sorority rush. I'm not asking you to pledge. That decision is up to you. If Greek is not for you, that's fine, but I want you to meet the sorority women on your campus and find out for yourself what sorority membership has to offer you. Register for rush and attend all the sorority activities with an open mind.

There are lots of advantages to being a member of a national fraternity or sorority. The sorority bond—sisterhood—I'm sure is like the brotherhood I experienced. The friends made are friends forever, and the personal interaction can be as much of an educational process as anything else you will experience in the classroom. The close friendship group is sort of a substitute family. There you can fail and get a pat on the shoulder and a handclasp and the encouragement to try again. There you can expand horizons, explore ideas, share dreams, even let off steam and always feel comfortable and safe. There you can be inspired by a role model whom you think is the greatest person in the whole world (except your good old Dad, of course!), and you can be a role model for younger women. There you can be yourself. You can grow.

Sororities, like fraternities, have a long history of service to college and community. As a chapter member, you would have an opportunity to use your many talents to serve others—in fundraising for philanthropies, in working with children or the elderly, in helping in campus projects. Alone, each of us can do a little bit. When we work with others whom we know and like, we can do almost anything.

Of course I am only familiar with my own Fraternity's goals and ritual. But I am sure that every fraternity and sorority strives to reach similar ideals of excellence in scholarship, leadership, and service. All sororities set high standards of conduct in these areas for their members, the kind of standards you have already been given in our family.

An advantage of sorority membership often overlooked, which I think is important to you, is the opportunity to learn how to run a business. Sororities are big business indeed, and sorority membership can be great career training because as you serve on committees and as an officer, you will learn management skills and sharpen your ability to accept and delegate responsibility. Leadership education is as important in today's sorority chapter as the development of social expertise, which, incidentally is an important part of career training. A socially inept management trainee doesn't get very far, but I think we'd have to look far and wide to find a sorority woman who is socially inept.

Like most young women, until this point in life you have been involved pretty much with only your own age group. Of course you know our friends, your friends' parents and your teachers, but other than that most of your contacts have been with your own friends. Sorority life provides exposure both in college and later to a broad age spectrum. Each college sorority chapter has an alumnae advisory group, women of all ages, who work closely with the chapter members, and each national sorority has alumnae organizations all over the country. Wherever a member goes after college, chances are there will be an alumnae group to welcome her and offer friendship and assistance in getting settled in a new community. I understand that some groups even offer help in finding a job and/or a place to live. I'm familiar with the "old boy" network, but I guess there's an "old girl" network too! I remember when I was your age, I couldn't imagine what it would be like to be 30, let alone 40. I've learned as we trudge down the miles of time, the journey is made lighter and brighter by good friends, old friends. I have come to understand what is meant when people say fraternity membership is for a lifetime. It has given me lifetime friends, a great treasure.

So give rush a try. You may run into some anti-Greek people on your campus who will tell you fraternity men and women are: anti-intellectual, perpetual partiers, stuck-up, and probably worse. Don't believe it! Find out for yourself. You may hear tales of hazing, hell weeks, mock initiations. Don't believe it! No national sorority indulges in these practices. People may tell you that sorority takes too much time and costs too much. You've always been able to set your priorities and plan your time. We can always find time and money for the things we really want to do, and I certainly consider the Greek experience an investment in the future.

As I think you can tell, I've loved being a member of a fraternity. I hope you will find out for yourself what the experience has to offer to you.

Love,
Your Phi Gam Dad

DIRECTIONS FOR USE OF RUSH DIRECTORY

ALUMNAE:

Write recommendation on yellow recommendation blank (obtained from Central Office or a Rush Recommendation Board) or on the rush form, below, with a letter attached giving full information.

1. Send recommendation in late spring or early summer.
2. Fill out form as completely as possible.
3. Include a picture of the rushee if available.
4. Even if the young woman is undecided about going through rush, tell her of the advantages of fraternity membership, and send her recommendation.

Send recommendation:

1. To the Rush Recommendation Board Chairman who covers rushee's community. (See pages 14-21.)
2. If there is no Rush Recommendation Board Chairman who covers rushee's community, to the college chapter's recommendation chairman or rush adviser. (See pages 8-11.)

COLLEGE CHAPTERS:

Refer to the 1983-84 Rush Personnel Roster and current supplements.

RUSH RECOMMENDATION BOARDS:

Send recommendations with the board's evaluation and chairman's signature to the college chapter's recommendation chairman or rush adviser. (See pages 8-11).

AUTHORIZED RUSH REPRESENTATIVES:

Send recommendations to the college chapter's recommendation chairman or rush adviser. (See pages 8-11.)

SEND RECOMMENDATIONS EARLY

Chapters with fall rush — by July 15

Chapters with deferred rush (after Christmas) — by August 15 before her death—the first Founders Award for Civic Leadership given by the Arts Endowment.

A testament to her unique contributions appeared in Newsweek after she died: "With enormous energy and charm Nancy Hanks transformed the government into a powerful patron of groups from opera to potters' workshops."

The National Foundation for the Arts has suffered serious cutbacks in the prevailing poor economic climate. Perhaps in another day not too far away, the legend of Nancy Hanks will live again with government and the private sector sharing responsibility for a flourishing community of arts in our country.

History told by those who made it

The 250 Thetas who attended the Founders' Day luncheon in Seattle in January were in for a treat which cannot be repeated. They heard a charter member of the Alpha Lambda chapter which celebrates its 75th Anniversary this year tell in her own words how there came to be a Theta chapter at the University of Washington. Grace Ridgway Curtis at 97 and without any help from anyone stood at the microphone and recounted her memories which included humorous anecdotes and a way of life unknown to any of those attending. So interesting and important was her story from an historic and cultural look at the days which marked the beginnings of the first Theta chapter in the Northwest, that it sparked an idea which some chapters might want to consider as a means of augmenting chapter history before time runs out. Chapters 50 years and older might look into the recording of oral histories taken from their charter members. For the younger chapter the sense of urgency to accomplish that is of course greatly diminished by the availability of chapter founders. For the very new chapters who still have charter members in school, what an opportunity to have a voice-recorded story of their founding to pass on!

She Writes About Nixon

The Spring 1983 issue of this magazine featured an article about Joan Hoff-Wilson, Alpha Nu. She received the University of Montana's Distinguished Alumnus Award for her stature as a writer and historian. Now she has embarked on a book which will put the presidency of Richard Nixon in "historical rather than hysterical perspective." She says she didn't know what to expect when she interviewed him, but the two apparently hit it off. Nixon was pleasant and the two spoke easily at the January meeting.

Books by Educators

CHILDREN OF POVERTY WITH HANDICAPPING CONDITIONS by Nancy Powell Dixon, Gamma Delta, Georgia; Charles C. Thomas Publisher Springfield, IL.

This book is designed to help teachers to cope humanistically. A collection of case studies, this book provides a useful picture of children who are handicapped by poverty, and by physical, mental or emotional problems. It focuses on their difficulties and ways of helping them.

PRIME TIME-RHYME TIME, by Susan Wolfe Burney, Gamma Psi, Texas Christian. Peterson & Wolfe Publications, Winter Park FL.

Prime Time-Rhyme Time provides teachers and students the gift of increased reading, spelling and speaking vocabularies through the enjoyment of creating original poetry. Tailored for first and second graders, yet easily adapted to the needs of older children.

SWIFTSURE The First Fifty Years by Humphrey Golby and Shirley Smith Hewett, Beta Upsilon, British Columbia; Lightship Press Limited, Victoria, BC, Canada.

"Somewhere in the soul of every sailor lurks the yearning to sail in Swiftsure, to compete with the best; and to meet the Strait of Juan de Fuca head on."

The Swiftsure Story traces the first fifty years of the Pacific Northwest's classic annual offshore race, rated as one of the world's most challenging courses. This famous yacht sailing event takes its name from the Swiftsure Banks, northwest of Cape Flattery at the entrance to the Straits of Juan de Fuca. For many years the U.S. Coastguard Lightship, Swiftsure marked the turning point in the course.

Shirley Hewett and co-author Humphrey Golby spent three and a half years researching, writing and publishing the book chronicling the history of the Swiftsure Race, which course forms a triangle bounded by Seattle, Victoria and Vancouver. Shirley Hewett graduated from the University of British Columbia with a degree in English and taught in high school before becoming immersed in the boating business.

This book will appeal to a wide audience. Spiced with salty stories, it can be read for pure enjoyment. It is also a vital reference work which explains tactics and handicapping, traces the evolution of yacht design and records complete statistics for present and future historians. For those less fascinated by the technical aspects of the Swiftsure there are biographical sketches of the "oldtimers" and descriptions of their sailing craft. It is a chronicle of ships and men and their competitive spirit against the elements of wind, waves and tide.

Shirley Hewett's credits in the world of sailracing include radio reporting of the Swiftsure continuously since 1969. She and her husband, Jeremy made the first Swiftsure broadcasts from the Race Rocks Lighthouse during the seventies.

Taking Shape

Headquarters on schedule on Founders' Road

Story by Sue Supple

You may be sure that no five people ever took a job more seriously or worked harder to make a headquarters worthy of all of you. We know we are not going to please everyone. House corporation decorating chairmen know that! We have attempted however, to make this building not only an efficient, attractive office but a home for Kappa Alpha Theta in which we can all take pride. Come see what you think at the dedication in September!

Patience is a virtue unknown to the Kappa Alpha Theta Building Committee. "Lord, give me patience, and I want it right now!" is their prayer. No matter how quickly things progress on the headquarters building, it is never fast enough for this eager crew.

By the time you read this, the beautiful structure designed by Roll McLaughlin of James Associates and pictured on the cover of the Autumn Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine, will be a reality. For a long period of time, however, it was only a hole behind a mountain of dirt.

To move the mountain, Marilyn Shanks Klingaman, Alpha, the capable and efficient chairman, and the four members of her committee have a typical week that includes meetings with architects and builder, consultation with designers, visits to the building site and viewing furniture to be purchased.

Marilyn contends that the next time Theta builds a headquarters we will know just what to do. Since there will never be a "next time" for Theta, some of us are considering starting a consulting firm for other NPC groups wishing to build headquarters. What else will we do with this vast new knowledge?

At this writing, the foundation has been poured, the sub-flooring laid, and the framing underway. We can begin to see where things will be, and Link Wiles Krimendahl, Beta Beta, plants her feet firmly on the rough flooring and says, "This is where the receptionist will sit. Do you see that desk specified by the designers fitting here? Will the secretary we saw in Louisville be too tall for the Board Room if it has to go under a beam?"

Jean Bippus Ringer, Alpha, can look at a chair in the midst of hundreds seemingly alike and tell us that this is the one the designers have selected. She knows every detail of every piece. Jean and Marty Dehner Copher, Alpha, are our antique experts. They have been antiquing long enough to know the good and their values. They are determined that the headquarters will not be "trendy."

At our own expense, we have gone to the Merchandise Mart in Chicago to sit in the Board Room chairs. The future of the fraternity should not be decided by women sitting in uncomfortable chairs! We have driven to Louisville and Shelbyville, Kentucky, to visit antique shops par excellence and found we couldn't afford most of what we really liked. We are still hoping that there are some Theta angels, who are breaking up large homes and would be interested in donating some treasured antique, but the time is growing short!

The projected moving date is "sometime in July." So it's goodbye Evanston, hello Indianapolis. Here come the Thetas!

Dedication Weekend September 17 - 18, 1983

Kappa Alpha Theta is gearing up for a week-end celebration of the opening of its new headquarters. Muffi Murphy James, Gamma, chairman of the Dedication Committee has her committee members scouring Indianapolis for the most interesting and entertaining activities for all of you to do when you come to share in the excitement. Because of the early deadline of the magazine, details have not been fully established, but we want to give you a sneak preview and ask you to let us know if you would like more information.

Please clip and return to Mrs. David Bayse, 2432 Dell Zell Drive, Indianapolis, IN 46220.

_____ Yes, I'll be there for this once in a lifetime celebration! _____ Maybe, send me more information so I can decide.

On the Road for Theta

by Sheila Clause, Delta Theta

My first meeting with a traveling consultant sparked my interest in the position. That was during my sophomore year in Delta Theta chapter at the University of Florida. I bombarded her with questions . . . what does a traveling consultant do, how long are chapter visits, who determines where you go, how are you chosen? From the time I learned all these things—the fun, the work and the excitement of the job, the idea of applying for it was always in the back of my mind.

Working with my own chapter was so rewarding, I could imagine how wonderful it would be to work with chapters all over the United States and Canada. I continued to think about the benefits of the position—traveling, meeting and working with Thetas everywhere, getting an idea of the scope of Theta operation and feeling a sense of satisfaction in knowing that I was contributing to the fraternity.

In my senior year after meeting with three TCs and questioning three TCs, I felt that I knew what the job entailed and was excited about applying. I felt that after serving my chapter as service chairman and vice president—pledge education, I had the necessary basic background, and I applied with high hopes of going “on the road” for Theta.

When I was chosen many things went through my mind—the fun and excitement as well as the responsibility and independence that would be mine. I began to wonder what it would be like to travel four months at a time, going for long periods without seeing anyone I had met before. I knew it would be a real challenge and I was anticipating all of it!

When I began I saw that there would be more to learn than I had imagined. I was going to see so many new places and meet all these special people! After a few visits I realized that each chapter had its own challenges as well as new adventures. Each chapter has its own personality—its own differences. The challenges have helped me to see that the sisterhood bond is strong and opens many doors. Working with chapter members and alumnae to help the chapter has great rewards. The love and care given to me when I was so far from home and friends was so important and could only happen though the Theta bond.

A typical chapter visit lasts ten to twelve days. During this time I meet with chapter officers, advisory board members, area alumnae, the Panhellenic advisor, etc.—those who can give me a picture of all that is going on in relation to the chapter. I stay in the chapter house or with one of the members if there is no house or lodge. I also attend various social and service events. Parties, exchanges, formals, fundraisers and community projects all help the TC to see how the chapter works. And they are fun!

I attempt to become a part of the chapter for a few days—discover what they are like, how they feel about their membership, and what they want out of the Theta experience, always remaining objective and relating to the chapter’s strong and weak areas to help them improve in any way I can. It was a great year and an ideal opportunity to bridge the gap between college and career.

Foundation Donor List Keeps Growing

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the fraternity. Contributions from thousands of Thetas throughout the country enable the Foundation to support the Institute of Logopedics, fund scholarships and fellowships, make Community Involvement Project grants, and provide a segment of the leadership training offered to our collegiate members. Thank you for making the charitable and educational aspirations of the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation possible.

Anne Hopkins, director of scholarship for the Fraternity

First Graduate Scholar Directs Scholarship Program

Anne Houghton Hopkins, Chi graduated from Syracuse University in 1963, and the next year was awarded the first Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation Graduate Scholarship to assist in her pursuit of a masters degree in Political Science. She received that M.A. at Syracuse in 1965, went on to earn a Ph.D. from the same university and is now an Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of Tennessee.

When she accepted the appointment of Director of Scholarship for the fraternity in 1982, she was well attuned to the college scene, not only from the perspective of a college professor, but because of her close involvement with Delta Pi chapter at the University of Tennessee. For the past eight years she served as Delta Pi scholarship adviser and good friend, who could be called upon to perform such mundane tasks as painter and plumber in the chapter suite in the Panhellenic Building, as well as furnishing advice and direction for the chapter scholarship program.

Her teaching interests lie in State Government and Politics and Intergovernmental Relations. She has published many articles concerning this field and has authored and co-authored papers and analytical reports dealing with the political process, and writings on employees in the public sector. Her book, Work and Job Satisfaction in the Public Sector, came out in the spring.

Anne served as Faculty Counselor to University of Tennessee President Boling, 1981-83; she is presently a member of the Task Force on Institutional Assessment. She also was named the Outstanding Greek Faculty Member in 1978-79. She is a frequent moderator and guest on TV and Radio programs.

Scholarship in the Chapter

Anne Hopkins speaks with authority when she describes the college years as an opportunity for enormous personal growth. She reiterates Kappa Alpha Theta's primary emphasis on the achievement of the highest individual and group scholarship.

"Each chapter and each individual has the responsibility to foster and promote the development of intellectual breadth and depth. Grades are an inadequate means to measure that achievement. The best indicators of intellectual vitality are intangible—a desire to explore the unknown, the excitement of discovery and the exhilaration of a new kind of experience. At their best, collectively chapters can set a tone which encourages Thetas to have such experiences. The current generation of college women have enormous opportunities and challenges ahead of them. Theta should play a major role in preparing them for that future."

Anne and her husband Ward and 13 year old dog, Ash live in Knoxville. She enjoys swimming and describes herself as a "winter person," preferring to wear bright bold colors.
